Two Children Burned To Death

Father Rides a Mile and Half Cold in Night Attire and Suffering Terribly From Burns

Early this morning the awful news was brought to Oyen that the home of Mr. Jas. Alston of Aoudia Valley was burned to the ground, and that his two children were burned to death, he also suffering severely from burns and frost bite.

The information received is meager, but it appears that Alston got up early this morning to start the fire in stove and went back to bed again. When he awoke he found the house in flames. He immediately rushed into the room where his two children were, but the flame had got such a hold of that part of the building it was impossible to reach them. He carried his wife out of the house into the barn, and although he was suffering terribly from burns and clad only in his burned night attire, jumped on a horse and rode mile and half to a neighbors for assistance. The temperature was about 35 below zero and consequently he was badly frozen, and rumor says, in a critical condition.

Farm Labor is to Be Mobilized

The Canada food board is preparing plans for the mobilization of labor for spring seeding operations. On the number of men available for seeding, the production of crops in Canada will largely depend. Men familiar with horses will be specially needed, and it is essential that they be secured to work on the land. For this reason employers of such labor in urban centres, especially merchants, will be advised to at once consider the adoption of co-operative methods of delivery in order to free the labor capable of driving horses and especially those with farm experience.

Marriage

Watrin—Johnstone

An interesting event took place in Calgary on Tuesday, February 12th, when Miss Florence May Johnstone, youngest daughter of Mr. Wm. Johnstone became the wife of Mr. P. A. Watrin. Both the young people are well known around Oyen, Mr. Watrin having a farm nine miles south of Oyen, and Miss Johnstone having for the last four years made her home with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Longueau. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the wedding was of the quietest nature, the bride being aided her mourning for the occasion only. After a short visit in Calgary the happy couple will make up their residence on Mr. Watrin's farm.

KING—STOREY

At the home of the bride's parents, Girvan, Sask., the marriage took place on Saturday, February 2nd, of Miss Violetta Jane Storey and Mr. Horace E. King, of Saskatoon. The bride was in marriage by her father, Miss Ruth Storey acted as maid of honor, and Mr. F. E. Alloway was groomsman. Only the immediate friends of the family were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Patterson of Craik. Mrs. A. B. King of Consort, played the wedding march and Miss Ruth Storey sang "A Perfect Day."

Mr. and Mrs. King will reside in the Armitage Block, Saskatoon.

Mr. King was in the grocery and dry goods business here in partnership with Dan Irving about three years ago. He is now travelling for the Quaker Oats Company, Saskatoon.

Red Cross Notes

The executive of the Red Cross will meet at the home of Mrs. R. Meachams on Monday evening, Feb. 25th.

Honesty is the backbone of business.

The Home Paper

A newspaper sometimes gets severely censured by some of its subscribers because it says something about which they do not agree with. Fortunately these people are not numerous. On the other hand it is often said that newspapers lack fearlessness and honesty and are generally influenced by their supporters, and therefore disregard truth and justice when their own interests are at stake.

A newspaper in your community is very much what you make it. If the people never want to read anything which does not altogether agree with their own views, then they are closing their minds to other views and perhaps to the truth. A newspaper that tell you all the good things that are said of you teach you nothing. Listen to criticism, especially that which is fair; then you may learn something and profit by it. There are only two possibilities. Either a paper must be a namby-pamby sheet that has no opinions of its own on any public question, and in this case is of little use to the community in which it exists because it is not sincere; or it must be a paper that will give a fair criticism on any subject or event, even if it be in the shape of a sugar coated plumb.

In the formation of public opinion the process must be of a rough and tumble character, and if the people in any community are to get ahead it is necessary that they be willing to see both side of a question and see things discussed from another standpoint. If your paper is enterprising, honest and courageous for heaven's sake support it all you can; by so doing you are helping along the day when you will be able to read newspapers which are free and independent to discuss questions and events with sincerity.

Life

Man came into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on this earth his time has been spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings. In his infancy he is an angel; in his boyhood he is a devil; in his manhood he is anything from a lizard up; in his duties he is a fool; if he raises a family he is a chump; if he raises a creek he is a thief; and then the law rases him with him. If he is a poor man, he is a poor manager and has no sense. If he is rich he is dishonest, but considered smart. If he is in politics he is a gaffer and a crook, if he is out of politics you can place him as he is an "Undesirable Citizen". If he goes to church he is a hypocrite if he stays away he is a sinner. If he donates to foreign missions he does it for show; if he doesn't he is stingy and a "tight wad". When he first comes into this world everybody wants to kiss him,—before he goes out they all want to club him.

See what a funny proposition after all.

A Ford Car Takes the Place of all These Things

WHEN you own a Ford you can do away with many articles that are a source of continuous expense to the man who still drives a horse. For instance, not only your driving-horse and buggy, but the single harness, blankets, whips, currycombs, brushes, horse-shoes, pitch-forks, feed-bins, etc.

In their place you have a speedy, dependable, dignified, roomy Ford Car—complete in itself. It is vastly superior to the narrow, cramped buggy that travels so slowly. And when a Ford is standing idle it does not eat three meals a day, and it requires no "looking after."

A Ford will save you time, trouble, and money. It is the utility car for the busy farmer and his family.

In spite of the fact that the yield of honey per acre was lower than in 1917, owing to the increase in the number of hives, the Manitoba honey crop was greater than it was in 1916 and exceeded one million pounds.

The high quality of the honey is creating a market in preference to imported honey, and many beekeepers are being willing to pay a higher price for the home product.

Allies Stand Four-Square

Surrender to France of Alsace-Lorraine is a Point on Which

France is Unshakable

President Wilson stands behind

Mr. Lloyd George's definition of the reference to Alsace-Lorraine, cover-

France of Alsace-Lorraine is a point on which the allies are unanimous.

Referring to the French claims,

President Wilson is most explicit and emphatic.

"All French territory should be freed and the invaded portions restored, and the wrong done to France by Prussia in 1871 in the matter of Alsace-Lorraine, which has unsettled the peace of the world for nearly fifty years, should be righted in order that peace may interest of all."

Violations of right that were tolerated or condoned in 1871 are riding in judgment against Germany, and will not be determined, not by the law of conquest, but by the law of international right and justice. In the history of the world, President

Wilson, "there is no confusion of issues. The allies are unanimous of the central powers, no uncertainty of the allies, no vagueness of detail. The allies are united, with their arms. Can the same be said of the enemy, countries? Germany

Will Oyen Become A Town?

The progress that Oyen has made during the past two years has been remarkable. It has today one of the best and most up-to-date electric light plants run by steam power. Numerous new buildings, including work-shops, stores and dwelling houses, have been erected during the last year. In fact, owing to the demand for building sites, there has been sub-divided an extra ten acres adjoining the old town-site on the south-east for residential buildings.

During the last year, Oyen has made great strides towards the encouragement of education and amusement for the people by erecting a big fine public school and one of the best opera houses on the Goose Lake line.

A public auction sale of farm stock and implements will be held at the Livery Barn, Excel on Thursday, February 28th. S. Rowell, auctioneer.

Chas. Wilson has taken over the agency here for the Cock-shut Implement Company.
